

Public and Private Justice: Dispute Resolution in Modern Societies

Enforcement, Enforceability and Effectiveness Of Legal Protection

Draft Programme - Public and Private Justice Course 2009

Sunday, May 24	Meeting of participants (Stradun, Gradska kavana, 19,30-20,00) Informal joint dinner
Monday, May 25 Topic 1: Enforcement - Fundamental Issues Book promotion Topic 2: History of Enforcement Systems Postgraduate students: Prize-winning presenters	Registration (9,00 - 9,30) Opening Remarks and Addresses (9,30 - 10,00) Morning Session: (10,00 - 13,00) Burkhard Hess (Heidelberg): Enforcement Systems in Europe Paul Carrington (Duke University): Private Enforcement of Public Law: The Problem of Transnational Corruption Third PPJ Book Presentation - An Introduction by the Reviewers and the Editors Lunch Break (13,00 - 15,00) Afternoon Session: (15,00 - 18,00) Paul Oberhammer (Zürich): General principles and policies underlying the European Enforcement Order Remco van Rhee (Maastricht): The history of enforcement of judgments and other official documents (16th-20th c.) Marko Petrak (Zagreb): Public and private enforcement in European legal tradition Panel: Non-formalistic alternatives to enforceability rules in civil law systems Bob Assink; Marc Dekkers; Niels Pepels (Maastricht University)
Tuesday, May 26 Topic 3: National Enforcement Systems in Europe Topic 4: Enforcement and the Process of European Intergration	Morning Session: (9,30 - 13,00) Robert Turner (Cambridge): Effective Enforcement of Civil Judgments in England John Stacey (London): Effective Enforcement for Small Claims in England John Marston (Walsall): A comparative study of the various different business models employed by the bailiffs of England and Wales Elisabetta Silvestri (Pavia): The devil is in the details: remarks on Italian enforcement procedures Mirjam Freudenthal (Utrecht): Attitudes of European Union Member States towards harmonisation of civil procedure Lunch Break (13,00 - 15,00) Afternoon Session: (15,00-18,00) Jon T. Johnsen (Oslo): The Norwegian system for adjudicating and collecting the victim's compensation Vesna Rijavec (Maribor): European Enforcement Order in Slovenia Xandra Kramer (Rotterdam): Enhancing enforcement in the EU: the European Payment Order and the implementation in several Member States Fokke Fernhout (Maastricht): Enforceability of arbitral decisions in the European Union
Wednesday, May 27 Topic 5: Enforceability and Effectiveness of Legal Protection	Morning session (8,30 - 12,00) Dirk Heirbaut (Ghent): Appeal procedures and enforceability of appealed judgments Peter Gilles (Frankfurt): Efficiency of oral, written and electronic court procedures in civil justice Remme Verkerk (Maastricht): The privatization of public justice: observations based on the

	American developments since the introduction of the Federal Rules Nina Betetto (Ljubljana): Implementation of EU civil procedural regulations, particularly with regard to enforcement, in the Slovenian case law Branka Rešetar (Osijek): Enforcement of decisions on contacts regarding children Lunch break (12,00 - 14,00) Study Trip: Exploring Legal and Cultural Heritage of Dubrovnik (16,30 - 19,00) Dinner (19,00 - 23,30)
Thursday, May 28 Topic 7: Competing Models of Enforcement Services: Public or Private Enforcement Agents? Topic 8: Comparative Experiences: Lessons to be learned from recent reforms	FIRST PPJ CONFERENCE ON JUDICIAL REFORM Privatization of Enforcement Services - A Way Forward for Croatia and the Region? Registration (9,30-10,00) Conference Opening (10,00-10,30) Opening addresses by the Ministry of Justice, International Union of Bailiffs, World Bank, European Commission, the CEPEJ; Address by the Dutch Ambassador Morning Session (10,30-13,00) Alan Uzelac (Zagreb): Public or Private Enforcement Agents: What is the best model for undecided countries? Panel: What Should be the Features of an Accessible and Efficient System of Enforcement? Participants: John Stacey (London); Mathieu Chardon (Paris); Jos Uitdehaag (Rotterdam); John Marston (Walsall); John Westwood (London) Lunch Break (13,00 - 15,00) Afternoon: Panels (14,00 - 17,00) Experience of Reforms in the Various European Jurisdictions, with a Special Emphasis on the Countries in Transition Countries: Slovenia, Macedonia, Serbia, Slovak and Czech Republic, Baltic States, Russia Participants: Vesna Rijavec; Vladimir Yarkov; Nikola Bodiroga; [others to be confirmed]
Friday, May 29 Topic 9: Croatia: What should be done in the reform of the Croatian enforcement system?	Morning Session (9,30 - 13,00) Erick Vincken (The Hague): Presentation of the Balkans Enforcement Reform Project Panel: What should be the features of the accessible and efficient system of enforcement? Participants: Members of the project team; Croatian professionals and representatives of the Ministry of Justice, other participants Lunch break (13,00 - 14,00) Open Panels (14,00 - 15,30) Wrap-up and departure (15,30 - 17,00)