

Public and Private Justice: Dispute Resolution in Modern Societies

Enforcement, Enforceability and Effectiveness Of Legal Protection

Draft Programme - Public and Private Justice Course 2009

Sunday, May 24	Meeting of participants (Stradun, Gradska kavana, 19,30-20,00) Informal joint dinner
Monday, May 25 Topic 1: Enforcement - Fundamental Issues Book promotion Topic 2: History of Enforcement Systems Postgraduate students: Prize-winning presenters	Registration (9,00 - 9,30) Opening Remarks and Addresses (9,30 - 10,00) Morning Session: (10,00 - 13,00) Burkhard Hess (Heidelberg): Enforcement Systems in Europe Paul Carrington (Duke University): Private Enforcement of Public Law: The Problem of Transnational Corruption Break (11,30-12,00) Mirjam Freudenthal (Utrecht): Attitudes of European Union Member States towards harmonisation of civil procedure Third PPJ Book Presentation - An Introduction by the Reviewers and the Editors Lunch (13,00 - 15,00) Afternoon Session: (15,00 - 18,00) Paul Oberhammer (Zürich): General principles and policies underlying the European Enforcement Order Remco van Rhee (Maastricht): The history of enforcement of judgments and other official documents (16th-20th c.) Break (16,30-16,45) Marko Petrak (Zagreb): Public and private enforcement in European legal tradition Panel: Non-formalistic alternatives to enforceability rules in civil law systems Bob Assink; Marc Dekkers; Niels Pepels (Maastricht University)
Tuesday, May 26 Topic 3: National Enforcement Systems in Europe Topic 4: Enforcement and the Process of European Intergration	Morning Session: (9,00 - 12,30) Robert Turner (Cambridge): Effective Enforcement of Civil Judgments in England John Stacey (London): Effective Enforcement for Small Claims in England Break (10,30-11,00) John Marston (Walsall): A comparative study of the various different business models employed by the bailiffs of England and Wales Elisabetta Silvestri (Pavia): The devil is in the details: remarks on Italian enforcement procedures Lunch Break (12,30 - 14,30) Afternoon Session: (14,30-18,00) Jon T. Johnsen (Oslo): The Norwegian system for adjudicating and collecting the victim's compensation Vesna Rijavec (Maribor): European Enforcement Order in Slovenia Break (16,00-16,30) Xandra Kramer (Rotterdam): Enhancing enforcement in the EU: the European Payment Order and the implementation in several Member States Fokke Fernhout (Maastricht): Enforceability of arbitral decisions in the European Union

Wednesday, May 27 Topic 5: Enforceability and Effectiveness of Legal Protection	Morning session (9,00 - 12,30) Peter Gilles (Frankfurt): Efficiency of oral, written and electronic court procedures in civil justice Remme Verkerk (Maastricht): The privatization of public justice: observations based on the American developments since the introduction of the Federal Rules Break (10,30-11,00) Nina Betetto (Ljubljana): Implementation of EU civil procedural regulations, particularly with regard to enforcement, in the Slovenian case law Branka Rešetar (Osijek): Enforcement of decisions on contacts regarding children Reception and introduction to the IUC (12,30 - 14,00) Study Trip: Exploring Legal and Cultural Heritage of Dubrovnik (14,00 - 19,00) Dinner (19,00 - 23,30)
Thursday, May 28 Topic 6: Basic Principles of Enforcement on European Level Topic 7: Comparative Experiences: Enforcement Systems of Western Europe Topic 8: Enforcement Systems in Countries in Transition	JOINT PPJ AND BERP CONFERENCE ON JUDICIAL REFORM Registration (9,00-9,30) Conference Opening Opening addresses by the Ministry of Justice, International Union of Bailiffs, World Bank, European Commission, the CEPEJ; Address by the Dutch Ambassador Morning Session (10,00-13,00) Eric Vincken (Leiden): The BERP - aims, background, and objectives Jos Uitdehaag (The Hague): The CoE Recommendation - Basic Principles of Enforcement Break (11,00-11,30) Panel: Enforcement - New Developments in various European countries (11,30-12,30) France; Netherlands; England; Germany; Austria Lunch Break (13,00 - 15,00) Experience of Reforms in Countries in Transition (15,00-16,00) Panel: Czech and Slovak Republic; Baltic states; Bulgaria; Russia Break (16.15-16.30) Continuation: (16.30-17.30) Slovenia; Serbia; Macedonia; Montenegro; Bosnia; Working Dinner hosted by the World Bank
Friday, May 29 Topic 9: What should be the features of an accessible and efficient enforcement system? Topic 10: Prospects for reforms in Croatia and the region	Morning Session (9,30 - 13,00) Mathieu Chardon (Paris): Training of bailiffs John Marston (London): Fee system Jos Uitdehaag (The Hague): Complaints vs. quality standards Break (11,00-11,30) Panel: The future of enforcement systems in Croatia and the region 11,30-14,00 Alan Uzelac (Zagreb): Privatization of Enforcement Services - A Way Forward for Croatia and the Region? Representatives of the Croatian Ministry of Justice and Croatian Judiciary: Future plans for reforms in Croatia Lunch (13,00-15,00) Findings of the EU expert mission for the reform of Croatia's Enforcement System (EU expert mission) (15,00-17,00) Mathieu Chardon (Paris): How to implement common standards of enforcement? General discussion Remco van Rhee (Maastricht): Conclusion and recommendations Closing